Lancaster, Ky.

Best Yet, Lancaster Fair. Don't Miss It.

Mr. Erasmus Dunn who has been quite ill, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Eason have taken rooms over Dr. Kinnaird's office.

There will be preaching in the park Sunday evening, July the 17th. Dr.
Pearce will probably preach.

The regular services and Sunday school will be conducted at the Baptist church, Saturday, July, 17th.

Mrs. H. Clay Hamilton suffered the misfortune of sticking a needle in her foot and a surgical operation was found to be necessary.

The Union services were held Sunday in the park and Dr. Trent a visiting minister, of Cleveland, Tenn., preached a fine discourse.

There will begin a series of meetings at the Baptist church, Aug. 28th.
The pastor will be assisted by Rev. J.
E. Martin, of Jellico, Tenn.

The work upon the new Lancaster Sanitarium is being pushed right along and there will soon be a new abode for the sick in the town and county.

Bert Kavanaugh (colored) was fined twenty-five dollars in Judge Ford's court Monday for being drunk and disorderly on Richmond Street Sunday afternoon. He was sent to the work house and is now helping build our new roads.

Dall County Court.

Old residents of Stanford say that last Monday was the dullest County Court day that they have ever seen in that city. The farmers were busy on the farm and did not come out.

Heads up Mr. Farmer.

The farmers are to busy to feel good however not many of them are worrying much and every one should rejoice and feel good as the prospects for a good year are very bright.

Corn, tobacco and hemp are extraordinary good. Most every one has finished cutting wheat, however some of them had to work all day last Sunday in order to save their crop.

Meeting at Hyatsville.

Rev. C. C. Brown will hold a series of services at the Hyatsville warehouse beginning Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. He will conduct services each evening thereafter at 7:45 p. m. for the next week or two. The people of the neighborhood should do everything possible to make the meeting what it should be, for Mr. Brown is a forcible speaker, a smart man and a good christian gentleman and has done much good in this County.

Splitter Culton

Mr. Harry R. Splitter M. D. who has charge of the new Sanitarium at Crab Orchard, and Miss Margaret Culton, of Crab Orchard, were married in Richmond, Ky., on Wednesday July, 6th. The bride is a daughter of Attorney T. J. Culton and is a very popular young lady. The groom came from Indiana and erected the large Sanitarium, just two miles this side of Crab Orchard, in the early spring.

Large Warehouse.

Mr. F. G. Hurt, the hustling furniture man bought of Mr. Sam Haselden a lot next to Powell's store. He will erect a large two story warehouse in which to store furniture as his business has grown to such an extent in the past few months that his present facilities are not large enough.

Mr. Hurt deserves credit for the business he has built up here, he has by his strict business methods and fairness to each individual made friends with the people of our County, who show their appreciation by patronizing him. He buys his furniture in large quantities and therefore gets the benefit of a low price, and can sell you as cheap as you can buy elsewhere.

Daily Paper for Danville.

The hustling little city of Danville is now enjoying a daily paper in the Kentucky Advocate, which made its first appearance as a daily on last Monday afternoon. Prior to this time it was a tri-weekly and was a credit to Danville and Boyle County. Now that it is a daily we congratulate our neighbor and feel sure that the paper will be well supported as Danville is growing fast and is well able to support a daily.

Much comment has been made of late about the great improvements, and of the untiring efforts of the present editors to publish a first class paper.

Tinsley—Conn.

On Thursday at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati, Miss Katherine Conn and Homer Tinsley were united in wedlock's holy bonds. The Rev. Dr.
Roughton was the officiating clergyman. The bride is a handsome young woman and the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Conn, of this city.
She is an unusually talented musician and possesses a voice of wonderful compass and sweetness. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley of McCreary, and is County surveyor.
This is a love affair of several years standing. The happy young couple left for French Lick Springs.

Revival at Christian Church

We are pleased to state that the revival meeting begun at the Christian Church last Monday evening is meeting with a hearty manifestation of interest by our citizens generally.
Good congregations have been present at every service and the prospects are encouraging for a great outpouring of the spirit. The words of the Master as delivered by the preacher at each meeting are falling upon good ground and we hope to see such a religious awakening as was never witnessed at Tullahoma. Let every Christian in Tullahoma contribute with his presence and influence to the success of the service and a great blessing will be poured out upon the people of the town. The Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, Ky., a man of intellectual strength and one who is profoundly imbued with the Spirit, is conducting the services and doing some good preaching. Those who fail to attend the meetings will miss an opportunity of hearing the story of the Cross told in a way which not only brings conviction but is very edifying even to those who have grown gray in the service of the Lord.

Rev. Tindler is being ably assisted in the work by the Rev. E. S. Smith, Superintendent of State Sunday school Work, and the Rev. C. E. Jackson, pastor of the church.—Tullahoma Guardian.

Mass Meeting.

A large crowd met at the City Court room on last Friday to talk over the local telephone conditions. The audience was composed of the business people of Lancaster and quite a number of subscribers of the local telephone company out in the county.

Mr. J. M. Farra was selected to preside over the meeting. Speeches were made by Messrs G. B. Swinebroad, W.
I. Williams, J. E. Robinson and R. H.
Tumlinson upon the needs and requirements of the county in the use of the telephone, and the importance of handling the question in a business way, so that the people may have the benefits of an economical and efficient telephone service.

Messrs W. I. Williams, G. B. Swine-broad and J. E. Robinson were appointed as a committee to investigate the telephone conditions of the county and city on behalf of the citizens of Garrard County including the city of Lancaster as to whether the Basin Telephone Company is giving proper service to the people, as to whether it is charging the rates contracted to charge in its contract with the city, and to make such recommendations to the City Council as the committee may deem proper. The Garrard County Fiscal Court will probably comply with the request of the City council and appoint a committee at the first meeting of the court to assist in making the investigation.

Popular Appointment.

Mr. G. B. Swinebroad has been appointed Attorney and Counselor at Law in this County to represent the Kentucky State Board of Control for Charitable Institutions in the collection of just claims due the States Charitable Institutions.

Mr. Swinebroad is a good Lawyer and an excellent business man. We are sure that he is well fitted to fill this office.

Big Fire.

The heaviest loss by fire in the history of Mount Vernon Ky. was suffered at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, when three large stores were gutted by flames, entailing a loss of $39,000. The stores burned were those of U. G.
Baker, F. Krueger & Son and S. W.
Davis.

Some of the goods of Baker's and Davis' store were saved, but Krueger's was a total loss. The fire is supposed to have been started by burglars, who first robbed the Krueger establishment.

Krueger's loss was estimated at $18-000, with $12,500 insurance; Baker's loss, $18,000, with $10,500 insurance, and Davis' loss is estimated at 3,000, with $1,500 insurance.

Fugitive From Virginia.

On last Monday night Sheriff C. A.
Robinson arrested Enoch Gilliam who for the past two or three years has been living on Ephraim Anderson's place on the Kentucky river near lock No 8. Gilliam was at home when arrested and was brought to Lancaster for trial. It is claimed that in May 1907 the said Gilliam shot and killed Robert Griffin in Lee County Va., and that since then the authorities of Virginia have been unable to locate him until now. Judge Ford confined him in the County jail for sixty days or until the authorities of Virginia issue requisition papers.

Shooting Scrape.

Clell Dunn, a sixteen year old colored boy on last Saturday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock shot Geo. Saulter and Geo. Jennings, both about sixteen years of age, with a shot gun. Jennings was shot in the face and his eyes will very likely go out. Saulter was shot in the back of his head.

It is claimed that the shooting came up over some icecream and Dunn was heard to say that he would shoot them if they did not go on. It happened in Duncan town.

Dunn is in jail and will be tried Friday. He claims that it was an accident.

Awful Results of the Prize-Fight.

Not only was the Jeffries-Johnson prize-fight a disgraceful affair but the evil effect it had on men's passions and prejudices was much greater. The following list shows a startling number of dead and injured resulting from the race riots throughout the country directly attributable to it. We are thankful there is not liable to be another in this country.

The dead—Uvaldia, Ga. 3; Mounds, Ill. 2; Lake Providence, La. 2; Little Rock, Ark. 2; Cincinnati, O. 1; Omaha, Neb. 1; Houston, Tex. 1; Kerstone, W. Va. 1; New York, 1; Tallulah, La. 1; Northern Louisiana, 3; Mt. Sterling, Ky. 1; Total, 19.
The injured—New York, 45; Omaha, Neb. 15; St. Louis, 27; Washington, 35; Norfolk, Va. 13; Keystone, W.
Va. 10; Wilmington, Del. 11; Uvaldia, Ga. 8; Louisville, Ky. 7; Tallulah, La. 1; Houston, Tex. 3; New Orleans, 7; Atlanta, 7; Mt. Sterling, Ky. 2; more, 6; Clarksburg, W. Va. 3; St.

burg, 10; Elsewhere (estimated) 100.

Who is to Blame.

The city of Newark was under the local option law, but it was being openly disregarded.

A number of the law abiding citizens of the community in and about Newark had organized themselves into what they termed a law and order league, for the purpose of bringing about the observance of the local option laws of that city. This organization being assisted by the Anti Saloon League employed ten detectives, as they were authorized to do by the laws of Ohio, and sent them to Newark to ferret out the violators of the local option laws and bring them to punishment. Carl Ehlington was one of the detectives.

In undertaking to arrest William O.
Howard who was accused of running a "Blind Tiger." Howard resisted arrest and was killed by the detectives, and Ehlington was said to have fired the shot.

Any body of citizens, we think, have the moral and legal right to organize themselves for the purpose of causing the observance of the laws. Not only have they the right to do this but we think that it is the duty of every good citizen to assist in having the laws observed. The object of the Anti Saloon League is to prevent the ill-censed sale of liquor and to prevent the blind tiger after the license are denied. In the case at Newark it was acting under the law. The detectives were not employed to take life but sometimes unfortunate and regrettable things happen in the undertaking of the most praiseworthy acts. The Anti Saloon League was undertaking to do a lawful, moral and right thing in a legal way and are therefore not to bear any blame for the unfortunate tragedy which resulted.
